

Senate

Role and Responsibilities

---

Senate is the senior academic body of the University, established in the Charter and responsible to Council for 'academic standards and the direction and regulation of academic matters' (Statute VI. 1). This encompasses teaching, examining and research as well as oversight of quality assurance and standards of the education provided by the University.

Senate's powers and responsibilities are delegated by Council, and is chaired by the Vice-Chancellor, as the head of the institution and the 'chief academic and administrative officer of the University'.<sup>1</sup>

Senate oversight of academic governance is delegated to its sub-committees, Schools, and divisions; through these delegations Senate seeks assurance on effectiveness, quality, and compliance.

Powers of Senate

The powers and functions of Senate, as defined in Statute VI and Regulation 4, include the following:

- Directing and regulating teaching and examination
  - Promoting research
  - Authorising the award or annulment of degrees
  - Regulating admissions and the discipline of students
  - Declare an opinion to Council on any academic matter and ask Council to consider it
  - Discuss and declare an opinion on any matter whatsoever relating to the University<sup>2</sup>
  - Recommending changes to the academic organisation of the University<sup>3</sup>
  - Advising Council on any proposed alterations to the Ordinances, Statutes and Regulations of the University, that fall within Senate's remit.

Regulatory Assurance

---

The Office for Students, the sector's first regulator, was established as part of the Higher Education and Research Act 2017.

The Office for Students' objective is to ensure that all students, from all backgrounds, with the ability and desire to undertake higher education are supported to access, succeed in, and progress beyond Higher Education. This includes ensuring students receive a high-quality experience and progress into employment or further study.

Senate is, on behalf of Council, responsible for receiving assurance that the University is compliant with the conditions of registrations within its remit: Condition A: Access and Participation; Condition B: Quality and Standards; and Condition C: Consumer Protection Law.
